Deployment Overview

Transportation is a high-tech business...

Onboard technology products allow fleets to operate more efficiently, improve customer service and increase profits. However, the implementation process is often overlooked when planning a technology deployment.

If poorly executed, costs can increase significantly. One of the most important factors to consider with your new technology purchase is the sooner you “go live”, the sooner you will start realizing your ROI.

Velociti is the proven market leader in transportation technology deployment. We have accumulated knowledge and expertise in a variety of technology solutions including In-Cab Communications, Fleet Tracking, Refrigeration Monitoring, Trailer Tracking, Auto Tire Inflation/Monitoring, Automatic Scale Systems, Collision Avoidance, Obstacle Detection, Video Monitoring, Driver Behavior Systems, Trailer Skirts, Auxiliary Power Units, Fuel Management Systems and Stability Control Systems.

From trucks to trains, we can help you get the best ROI from your technology solution, maximizing your fleet productivity and giving you a competitive edge.

Markets Served

Fleets: Private and Common Carriers, Truckload and Less-than-Truckload, leasing/rental, service/specialty, energy, waste, public transit and more.

Vehicles: Class 3 to 8 trucks, box trucks, service trucks, dry van trailers, refrigerated trailers, containers, school buses, public transit buses, off-highway construction equipment, passenger/freight locomotives/rail cars and more.
